Become an FOL member . . . at the library!

The Library Open House will be October 18th from noon until 4:00 pm. Come see the new carpeting, new lighting, and new furniture. Author Amy M. Bennett will be in the Southwest Room at 1:00 discussing and signing her latest book No Lifeguard on Duty. At 2:30 author Lynda Sanchez will be in the multipurpose room for her book signing; Apache Legends & Lore of Southern New Mexico: From the Sacred Mountain. We will also have refreshments and door prizes. Join Us!

October 19th - 26th is National Friends of Libraries Week

The Friends of the Library has donated $4,500 to the library this past year for the purchase of catalog station stands and a new desk for the youth services librarian. We sponsored two Chautauqua programs; Rachel Carson and John Steinbeck. We collaborate with other organizations, such as partnering with the NAACP this year for the Juneteenth celebration. The FOL recognizes the ongoing need for and value of the public library for the enrichment of our community. We believe in advocating for our library and cultivating relationships that enhance the library as it continues to carry out its mission.

Most importantly, we believe in enjoying the library and we host programs that the community can readily participate in and have fun with. Join the Friends and join the party!

This is the perfect time to join or renew your FOL membership.

When the Alamogordo Public Library receives General Obligation (GO) Bond money, they can boost the collection by about 3,000 items.
